

I really would not want to see a national standard for a Telephone Privacy Act that would water down our new and wonderful Indiana law! The number of calls have dropped from 3-5 per day to 1 per week! It's so nice to sit through dinner, a movie, or reading with my child without the phone ringing with a call I do not want!